Discover UC Davis

Discover your potential.

UC Davis students go beyond classroom learning; they change the world through their work with campus research, internships and capstone projects. Find out how you can transfer to a four-year college and become a change-maker!

Friday, February 26 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Discover UC Davis is a free transfer-planning event at the UC Davis campus that includes:

- Continental breakfast and lunch
- Student-led campus walking tours
- Information on selecting a major that relates to your future career
- Panel discussion with UC Davis transfer students
- Information about undergraduate research, financial aid, transfer student services, studying abroad and preparing for a career or graduate program

Start your UC Transfer Admission Planner (UC TAP) before February 10 to receive a registration invitation.
